

PRECOLUMBIAN TEXTILE TECHNIQUES WORKSHOP
ISLA NEGRA, CHILE
BY CAROLINA YRARRAZAVAL
AUGUST 15-21
www.yrarrazaval.com

The Chilean textile artist Carolina Yrarrazaval will offer a workshop about pre-Columbian textile techniques. This one – week workshop will take place in a little town called Isla Negra, where the artist lives. This town lies on the central coast of Chile and is well known as a peaceful spot where craftsmen and other artists live. The famous poet Pablo Neruda's museum-house is also in Isla Negra.

Valparaiso is located 117 km from Santiago (capital), and was declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO. Here is where the participants will stay at night, having the chance to explore this beautiful city and its surroundings. Daily they will be picked up in the morning and taken to Isla Negra, to the artist's studio.
